

Privacy Policy

At OMC Employees Credit Union, your privacy is top priority. We will maintain strong security controls to ensure that member information in our files and computers is protected.

You will always have access to your information. As a member of OMC, you will always have the opportunity to review your information and make necessary changes to ensure that our records are complete and accurate.

INFORMATION THAT WE COLLECT AND DISCLOSE TO OTHERS

We collect information about you from the following sources:

- Applications and other forms you submit to us, such as: your name, address, SS#, assets and income.
- Information about your transactions with us and others, such as: your account balance, payment history, credit and debit card usage.
- Consumer reporting agencies
- Credit worthiness and history

We may disclose all of the information that we collect, as described above.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE THE INFORMATION

- Financial service providers, such as those that provide data processing, check printers, credit and debit card companies, title companies, real estate appraisers.

We may disclose all the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements. We may also disclose information about you under other circumstances, as permitted or required by law.

If you decide to terminate your membership with us or become an inactive member, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as may be permitted or required by law as described above.

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

We restrict access to information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your information.

REVIEWED AND APPROVED BY BOARD JULY 16, 2003